

PRESIDENT MOUL PRESIDING

PRESIDENT MOUL: Good morning, and we will now have the prayer by the chaplain, Harland Johnson.

REVEREND JOHNSON: (Prayer offered.)

PRESIDENT MOUL: Roll call. Record, Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: Quorum present, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: We do have a quorum. Do we have any corrections to the Journal?

ASSISTANT CLERK: No corrections, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: We will proceed to Item 4 on the agenda, adoption of the temporary rules. Senator Lynch.

SENATOR LYNCH: Madam President, I move that the rules now in place today stay in place for today only, January 11, 1991.

PRESIDENT MOUL: You have heard the motion. Is there any discussion? Seeing none, we will now proceed to a vote. All of those in favor, please vote aye. All those opposed, please vote nay. Have you all voted? Please record your votes. Please record, Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays on the adoption of temporary rules, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The temporary rules have been adopted. We will now proceed to Item 5, messages, reports and announcements.

ASSISTANT CLERK: Thank you, Madam President. Senator Lynch has asked me to announce that the Rules Committee is meeting now in the Senator's Lounge. The General Affairs Committee would also like to meet in the Senator's Lounge, at this time, for purposes of selecting a vice-chair. Senator Withem, as Chair of the Education Committee, reports that Senator Cap Dierks has been elected Vice-Chair of the Education Committee. I have a request from Senator Dierks and Senator Smith to add their names as co-introducers to LB 46.

PRESIDENT MOUL: If there are no objections, it will be so
